The 4-day Chitwan jungle safari itinerary offers a luxurious experience in Chitwan National Park, allowing you to explore its hidden treasures and diverse flora and fauna. This package is ideal for those seeking upscale jungle activities and safaris. Chitwan stands out as the premier safari destination in South Asia, providing deep access to the tropical jungle where you can observe the Bengal tiger, one-horned rhinoceros, elephants, wild boars, sloth bears, and a variety of reptiles. The 4-day Chitwan safari tour begins and concludes in Kathmandu. It includes round-trip flights, luxurious accommodations, and meals in Chitwan (breakfast, lunch, and dinner), along with a nature guide, jeep safari, entrance fees, canoeing, village tours, jungle walks, cultural experiences, and more. You can participate in the Chitwan safari tour at any time, making it suitable for individuals of all ages and fitness levels, and it offers a comfortable package.

Chitwan National Park, established in 1973 AD, is the first national park in Nepal. It was designated a World Heritage Site in 1986 AD. The park spans an area of 952.63 km² (367.81 sq mi) in the Terai region of south-central Nepal. Its elevation varies from approximately 100 m (330 ft) in the river valleys to 815 m (2,674 ft) in the Sivalik Hills. The park is predominantly covered by forests, with 70% consisting of sal trees, 20% grassland, and the remainder comprising riverbeds and wetlands. It is home to 68 mammal species, 550 different bird species, critically endangered gharials, around 128 Bengal tigers, and between 694 and 752 one-horned rhinoceroses, along with 89 species of reptiles and 111 varieties of fish. This national park is an excellent destination for wildlife exploration.

The ideal seasons for the Chitwan Jungle Safari are autumn (September to November), spring (March to May), and winter (December to February). You can travel from Pokhara and Kathmandu using various options, such as the budget-friendly tourist bus, private transportation that offers numerous views of the countryside, or a flight, which is a quick and comfortable way to reach Chitwan National Park. Sherpa Nomad Trek Pvt. Ltd. offers a 4-day luxury package for the Chitwan jungle safari tour, which includes 3 nights of accommodation at the Soaltee Westend Resort Chitwan. The package includes 3 breakfasts, 3 lunches, and 3 dinners at the hotel.
