Kali Gandaki River Rafting - 3 Days

KALI GANDAKI RIVER RAFTING: THE FINEST WHITE WATER RAFTING

The Kali Gandaki is a sacred river originating from Upper Mustang and the Muktinath Temple. It stands out as an exceptional destination for white-water rafting, thanks to its picturesque surroundings and exhilarating rapids. The rafting experience spans three days, making it the ultimate choice for those seeking an adrenaline rush from Pokhara. The Kali Gandaki River features a rapid difficulty rating ranging from Class III to IV, with certain sections even reaching IV+. It presents a series of continuous, technical white-water rapids, complemented by significant drops, turbulent chutes, and breathtaking views through Nepal's deepest gorge. Participants will enjoy stunning vistas of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri mountain ranges, all while navigating through a serene atmosphere filled with charming villages and lush valleys, creating unforgettable moments during the thrilling rafting activities, guided by professional rafting experts and their crew. If you find yourself with three free days in Pokhara before or after your trek and wish to indulge in exhilarating river rafting activities, we highly recommend joining the Kaligandaki River rafting experience, which is the ultimate thrill for water adventure enthusiasts. Along with the white-water rafting, you will encounter breathtaking scenery, diverse nature, and rich biodiversity. This journey includes a 2-night camping stay on the banks of the Kali River, providing one of the best moments of your life, accompanied by soothing sounds, refreshing ambiance, and cool atmosphere.
